

ANNOUNCEMENT

Invitation for Procurement of Branding and Event Management Agency for the 10th Anniversary of the Kosovo Credit Guarantee Fund (KCGF)

In 2026, Kosovo Credit Guarantee Fund (KCGF) will mark its 10th Anniversary. On this occasion, KCGF plans to organize two high-level events in April 2026: a full-day International Conference, followed by a Gala Evening. Both events will take place on 23 April 2026 and are expected to host up to 300 participants each, including senior government officials, international donors and local partners, financial institutions, guests from international credit guarantee institutions and associations, representatives from the private sector, and other key stakeholders.

Through this procurement process, KCGF seeks to engage a qualified and experienced Branding and Event Management Agency to provide professional support in branding and visualization of this anniversary, promoting and communicating to the public through different media channels this important institutional milestone, design and production of marketing and communication materials, detailed coordination and delivery of the anniversary events, refining and implementing the pre-defined conference themes and gala dinner format.

The selected Agency will ensure the coherent presentation of content, consistent branding, and the high-quality visualization as well as the coordination and facilitation of execution of both events, in line with KCGF's institutional objectives and communication standards.

KCGF has prepared a Request for Proposal (RFP) for the required services and invites all qualified bidders that are professional companies registered in Kosovo to respond to the RFP.
